

Daniel Chapter Ten

Homework

1. How does knowing that the world is involved in spiritual warfare make you feel regarding your worldly interactions and the world's events in general?
2. How do you deal with identifying interactions as just normal circumstances or as spiritual warfare?
3. As a Christian, are you ever alone in the world? Give some scriptural evidence to support your answer.
4. What are some ways that Christians are involved in the spiritual warfare of the world? Again, use scriptural evidence for your answer.
5. Daniel fasted and prayed to gain understanding regarding God's will and his response to that will. What are some ways you use to gain such understanding?
6. When you face a difficult situation where it seems that God's agenda is not being accomplished, what is your response?
7. This chapter gives us some insight into the spiritual warfare and how God's agenda can seem to be modified by Satan and his demons with their actions. Give some scriptural verses to give comfort in knowing that God is sovereign over all forces and so His agenda is never thwarted.
8. Give some scriptural verses that let you know God has angels to help His people.
9. Satan is a great supporter of religion but not Christianity. What are some methods of his attacks on the church?
10. How can you recognize the difference between a religion developed by Satan and his demons and a true church of Jesus Christ?
