

Daniel Chapter Seven

Homework

1. In Daniel's vision the nations are described as beasts. Consider some of the nations making headlines today and describe them in terms of some animal.
2. Discuss some issues in the world today that remind you of the presence of Satan and his angelic forces being active in the world.
3. What are some changes that could occur in churches today when the Christian religion is being highly criticized by the world? Be specific and include some changes that you see happening now.
4. Discuss some things that you think will be changed drastically in the world today when God's Kingdom is permanently established.
5. Briefly discuss some possible reasons for the order of the chapters in Daniel.
6. Why do the Biblical writers usually use the sea to symbolically represent the source of evil in the world? What does Daniel mean by stating that the wind was blowing from four directions in stirring up the sea?
7. Daniel saw a new arrangement about a federation that was different from what was given to Nebuchadnezzar. What was this new situation?
8. What in this vision demonstrated to Daniel the sovereignty of God that would have given him great peace?
9. Why was his spirit distressed (verse 15)?
10. How might we be in the phase of history prophesied in verses 23-26?