

Daniel Chapter Eight

Homework

1. Discuss how God may be using some people in the world as He did with Cyrus without their knowledge or submission to Him. Be specific and include past leaders as well as current leaders.
2. How has God protected His people through political forces? Again, be specific.
3. Name five people, including Alexander the Great, who have helped shape the world as we now know it to exist.
4. Name five of the cruelest tyrants in history including Antiochus.
5. When Antiochus outlawed every aspect of Jewish worship, what are some ways that the people preserved that religion underground?
6. If some aspects of Christianity were to be outlawed what would you do to preserve this method of worship of God?
7. If some state agency began to take the license plate numbers of cars parked at local places of worship, how would you respond other than riding with someone else?
8. What are some specific actions of an Antichrist that you would recognize?
9. What would be some of your reactions to finding out that the end of the world was coming soon?
10. Name some Biblical figures to whom God spoke in visions. What would be your reaction to hearing that someone today claimed that God was speaking to him in visions?
