

THE GREAT SEA

Damascus

Sidon

Tyre

Dan

3. David, who served as a soldier in Saul's army, killed Goliath in the Valley of Elah (1 Sam. 17:19, 45-50).

2. David was a harpist in King Saul's court at the capital city of Gibeah (1 Sam. 16:23).

1. David, youngest son of Jesse, was born in Bethlehem and tended his father's sheep there (1 Sam. 17:12, 15).

4. Saul became angry at David, even though he was a friend of Saul's son Jonathan. David hid in Nob, Gath, Keilah, and other places (1 Sam. 19-23).

7. As king of all Israel, David reigned at Jerusalem (2 Sam. 5:1-5).

6. Among David's conquests were Edom, Moab, the Ammonites, the Amalekites, and the Philistines (2 Sam. 8:11, 12).

5. David became king of Judah, with his capital at Hebron (2 Sam. 2:1-4).

Joppa

Elah

Gibeah

Nob

Jerusalem

Bethlehem

Gath

Keilah

Hebron

Beersheba

The Negeb

EDOM

MOAB

AMMON

SEA OF GALILEE

JORDAN RIVER

MAHANAIM

DEAD SEA

PHILISTINES