

Thank You

*There is a strong bond among Christian women that is both instant and constant
Instant in that you are met with a smile and often a hug,
Constant in that this bond grows stronger and deeper with each day.*

*Women know the value of a true friend . . .
She listens to your deepest concerns and with a few words gives both comfort and wisdom.
She keeps your secrets and understands your weaknesses.
She laughs with you until you cry, and
She cries with you until it doesn't hurt so much.
She is your advocate against any opposition.
She will tell you the truth even when it is difficult for both of you.
She will pray for you and with you.
She is available whenever you need her and she never fails to be helpful in the most practical ways.
She shares her time, wisdom and her grandmother's secret recipe.
She is one of God's best blessings in your life.*

On Tuesday mornings when we come together to learn from God's Word, the room is filled with women whose love for one another is evident (and a little noisy). In this room and wherever and whenever we meet, I am truly blessed by you. Thank you for your prayers and for the joy, love and encouragement you give so generously. Thank you for being my true friend in Christ.
